

Hunger
is like the inside
biting you.
"Like" is like insomnia.

—from "Luster"

Two Events with Poet Rae Armantrout

2010 Pulitzer Prize and National Book Critics Circle Award recipient

TALK & PANEL DISCUSSION

"The Binding Problem: Poetry and the Data of Experience"

With Geoffrey Nathan, Jeff Pruchnic, and Donora Hillard
Chaired by Barrett Watten

Thursday, September 22, 1:00 pm
English Department Conference Room
Room 10304, 5057 Woodward Avenue

POETRY READING

RAE ARMANTROUT

Professor, Literature Department, UC San Diego
Author of Veil: New and Selected Poems, Next Life, Versed and Money Shot

Thursday, September 22, 4:00 pm
The Welcome Center Auditorium
Woodward and Warren Avenues, WSU

Both events are free and open to the university community and public.

Sponsored by the Department of English, the DeRoy Chair, Regions of Practice, and the WSU Humanities Center

Department of English, Wayne State University